This document provides an overview of the historic developments, approaches, innovations and the services on vocational education and training for PWDs in the Indian context. It not only provides rich knowledge and material for trainers, but it also provides a forum for future discussion in various training programmes within the country. Thus, the document prepared is the need of the hour in order to make the concept of VETR successful. The overall aim of vocational training is to enhance the vocational skills of PWDs leading to economic development.
